B. Participation and Voting procedure at the General Meeting

a) By granting proxy

Shareholders may participate and vote in the General Meeting by proxy holders. Each shareholder may appoint up to three (3) proxy holders. However, if a shareholder has shares of the Company that are held in more than one securities account, the above limitation shall not prevent the shareholder from appointing separate proxy holders for each of the securities accounts, where the shares are held with respect to the General Meeting. A proxy holder, acting on behalf of several shareholders, may cast votes differently in respect of shares held by each shareholder represented, according to given voting instructions. Legal entities may participate in the General Meeting by appointing up to three (3) individuals as proxy holders. The shareholder can appoint a proxy holder either for a sole General Meeting or for a number of General Meetings taking place within a determined time period. A proxy appointment can be recalled.

The proxy holder votes in accordance with the shareholder's instructions, as long as these are in place and is obliged to keep file of the voting instructions for at least one (1) year from the date of the General Meeting.

The proxy holder is obliged to disclose to the Company, before the start of the General Meeting, any event, which might be useful to the shareholders in assessing the risk of the proxy holder pursuing any interest other than the interest of the represented shareholder. A conflict of interest within this context may in particular arise where the proxy holder:

- (i) is a controlling shareholder of the Company, or is another entity controlled by such shareholder;
- (ii) is a member of the Board of Directors or of the management of the Company, or of a controlling shareholder or another entity controlled by the controlling shareholder;
- (iii) is an employee or a certified auditor of the Company, or of a controlling shareholder or an entity controlled by such shareholder;

(iv) is a spouse or relative (1st degree) with an individual referred to in points (i) to (iii)

The appointment as well as the revocation or the replacement of the proxy holder of the shareholder, shall be made in writing and shall be submitted to the Company, at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to the General Meeting and in case of shareholders identified via registered intermediaries or intermediaries through confirmations or notices in accordance with articles 5 and 6 of Regulation (EE) 2018/1212.

To facilitate the shareholders, the Company has designated specific executives who, if the shareholders wish, may grant a proxy to represent and vote on their behalf in the General Meeting in accordance with their written voting instructions.

The Proxy Form will be available to the shareholders in an electronic form on the website of the Company (www.helleniqenergy.gr). In case of noncompliance with the deadline of article 128 par. 4 of L. 4548/2018, the shareholder may participate in the Extraordinary General Meeting unless the General Meeting refuses the participation on good reason that justifies such a refusal.

b) Voting by postal vote prior to the General Meeting

In particular, shareholders, or their proxies, who wish to participate remotely in the voting on the item of the Extraordinary General Meeting, can make use of this option:
